In the event that an employee receives a written or verbal warning that such discipline shall not be used in future disciplinary actions after three years from the date the said discipline is final (end of grievance process), provided that there are not other written reprimands, suspensions or other disciplinary action during the three (3) year period. - B. In the event that an employee receives a suspension that such discipline shall not be used in future disciplinary actions after five (5) years from the date the said discipline is final (end of grievance process), provided that there are not other written reprimands, suspensions or other disciplinary action during the five (5) year period or thereafter. From this date forward, any disciplinary action which is based upon the conduct of an employee which is alleged to constitute resident abuse and/or neglect and/or exploitation shall specifically give notice to the employee that the allegation is one of resident abuse and/or neglect and/or exploitation.

Prior discipline, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be considered in the disciplinary/grievance process and given appropriate weight taking into account all

Any request for hearing must be made within 10 working days of the grievance being filed with the Commissioners in the case. In the event of a hearing on the grievance, said hearing shall be held within 30 days of the grievance being filed with the Commissioners. The Commissioners shall issue

The decision of the arbitrator shall not go beyond what is necessary for the interpretation and application of the express provisions of the agreement. The arbitrator shall not substitute his/her judgment for that of the parties in the exercise of the rights granted or retained by the Agreement.
